WEATHER KEY POINTS

10/09/21 - 10/15/21

Saturday-Friday

- Gusty winds of 30 to 50 mph are possible through Saturday night and again on Sunday night across the southern mountains and deserts. However, with high humidity levels, no significant fire weather concerns are expected.
- A storm system on Monday will bring cooler temperatures across the state through mid week, with potential mountain snow over the Sierras for Monday.
- Gusty northerly winds are expected to develop across the state Monday, then turn more offshore for Tuesday, potentially leading to critical fire weather concerns
 - Wind gusts of 40-60 mph are possible across much of central and southern California Monday and Tuesday
 - Gusty offshore winds could linger across southern California on Wednesday
- Gradually warming and more quiet conditions are expected by late in the week.
